CONF015329

DEPOSITION SUMMARY OF [REDACTED] TAKEN 8/16/88

Date of birth [REDACTED], lives with his grandmother and seems to be a defense witness. The only appearance at the deposition was State Attorney Howard Pohl.

He met Joseph Carol 14 years prior when [REDACTED] was transferred from Scout Troop 2 to Carol's scout unit. [REDACTED] was 10 years old at the time. The transfer was due to some vision problem that [REDACTED] had, and he had been a scout a year prior to the transfer.

The troop was meeting in a church across from Barry University. The troop moved around a lot until they finally moved into the old mission.

[REDACTED] became an Eagle Scout at age 19. He said that he should have been an Eagle Scout at age 18, but there was a mixup in his records. He was also a patrol leader and an assistant scout master at age 18.

He advises that there were several trips to Washington, D.C., Disneyworld and to the Star Trek and Comic Book Conventions. He alleges that he always went on these trips. They would all stay in one room. It would always be two adults and from four to six boys. It is very confusing as to when they went but it seems that they would go every year from 1982 until the time of this incident. It seems that [REDACTED] was age 18 at the time and went everywhere with Carol. The boys would sleep on the floor, beds or cots, and Joseph Carol would sleep by himself. The group was always together and during the questioning the State Attorney tried to see if they were ever separated, but Mr. [REDACTED] kept repeating that they were always together and there would be at least two of them together at all times. This would be one adult and one scout would be considered a pairing.

Mr. [REDACTED] did not relate these trips as being related to scouts as they did not want to complete all the forms that would be needed if it was a scouting activity. But during the questioning which was very leading from the State Attorney. It was finally determined that there was no way to differentiate between a scout outing or trip and that of the children's mission. Mr. [REDACTED] would advise that the trips to Washington, D.C., were business where they would go to meet people but could not state who they met and if they, in fact, every met anyone.

They questioned him as to his knowledge of the scout requirements to be a lifeguard and how many lifeguards were required per troop. Mr. [REDACTED] kept saying that he knew all the scout requirements but per his answers he knew very little of the scout requirements. Everything that he knew was hearsay, but he could not state who told him what was needed and what was not. It seemed that he was in charge of recordkeeping but very little records were kept. They did not seem to follow the scout policy as to the recordkeeping. He states that the age group for scouts was 11 through 18 and that no one under age 11 was admitted and once you became 18 you are automatically out of the scouts.

At age 18 he was put on the Board of Directors of the children's mission and was considered their treasurer but did very little recordkeeping as Mr. Carol would take care of everything.

IN MANAGEMENT

There was questioning concerning a child named [REDACTED] who lived with Carol from age 7 to 14. Per Mr. Carol the boy was put in his care from the state agency until such time as he could be reunited with his family or adopted.

It seems from the statements in the deposition that Mr. [REDACTED] was to bring all the financial records of the scouts and the mission but he didn't have anything of any consequence.

He alleges that Carol took care of everything and [REDACTED] knew little of what was happening within the mission and the scouts. He could not differentiate as to what was a scout activity and what was a mission activity.

In an overview they did not ask any questions of Mr. [REDACTED] as to Mr. Carol's activities with the other scouts. This seemed to be a deposition concerning the financial records of the scouts and/or children's mission of which Mr. [REDACTED] had very little information. It is noted that when Mr. Carol was put in jail Mr. [REDACTED] made himself director of the children's mission and was filing papers with the Internal Revenue but it was obvious he knows very little about that the position or operation of the mission concerned.

DEPOSITION SUMMARY OF IRVING SCHOENFELD TAKEN 8/16/88

He met Joseph Carol in a 1978 scouting outing near Davie which is known as Camp Seminole. Mr. Schoenfeld was the leader of Troop 700 and was a scout master for 45 years.

Has some activity with Joseph Carol at the mission and also saw him at different scout functions.

From the questions it seems that Mr. Schoenfeld was accused of picking up a 15 year old girl and stated that she wanted to have sex with him, but he denies this, stating that he made those statements under pressure, and that's why he said them, but they were not true.

The scouts pulled his affiliation after this incident with the young girl. Basically, there was nothing of any consequence regarding Mr. Carol and Mr. Carol's affiliation with the scouts.
